Financial Track: ABI/TMA Panel - The Financial Professional's Role In Out-Of-Court Restructurings and Dissolutions

Friday, April 25
2:15-3:45 p.m.

In today's marketplace, more and more thought is being given to pursuing state law remedies rather than commencing chapter 11 cases. This is especially true in the middle market. This

The 32nd Annual Spring Meeting
JW Marriott, Washington, D.C.

The 32nd Annual Spring Meeting features a roster of the best national speakers, and the depth and scope of topics offer something for everyone. Four concurrent workshops will cover various "tracks," including programs for attorneys in large and small commercial cases, a track for professional development and a track dealing solely with consumer issues. The conference offers more than 18.25/22 hours of CLE/CPE in some states and ethics totaling 3.25/4 hours. In addition, nine committee sessions will drill down on topics covered in the larger sessions to provide you with the most practical and varied CLE experience ever.

Come join us back “home” in Washington, D.C.!
