Industry Expert Rebecca R. DeMarb Expands DSI Leadership

Rebecca R. DeMarb is launching a new office for Development Specialists, Inc. (“DSI”) as a new Senior Managing Director in Madison, Wisconsin to expand geographic presence and provide additional expertise in financial reorganization.

DeMarb is widely recognized for her legal expertise in representing scores of companies throughout Wisconsin in financial workouts, reorganizations and bankruptcy proceedings. For the past 24 years, she has managed a seasoned and successful law practice. Bradley Sharp, President and CEO of DSI, stated, “Rebecca’s work ethic and legal knowledge are well known in the region and we are thrilled with her addition to our nationwide team. DSI will continue to support her important work in Wisconsin as we continue to build additional services for our clients and partners in financial restructuring.”

DeMarb brings to DSI decades of experience as an attorney advising businesses who are financially struggling and serving as a court-appointed receiver in Wisconsin. In her new position, DeMarb will continue to serve as a court-appointed receiver in Wisconsin, as well as expand to provide her expertise to firms nationwide. “I am excited to bring my unique perspective and experience to join with the quality team at DSI. My legal background in concert with the established and successful track record at DSI in creating solid business solutions for struggling businesses will be a strong combination,” remarked DeMarb.

DeMarb’s has received the following recognition for her work:

- Wisconsin Super Lawyers list in Debtor-Creditor Rights, 2008 to present
- Top 25 Female Attorneys in Wisconsin by Super Lawyers, 2010, 2015 to present
